Dear Harold and Lil:

Well, for better or worse, I have submitted the enclosed article to the National Enquirer. I am tired of never getting any book reviews published, so I decided to take a flyer and send an article to them.

Hope the quote is okay, it is accurate. I have little or no idea what I am doing, but maybe they will publish it. Who knows? When the conventional press fails us, we have to turn to other outlets.

Hope my last letter was not too disjointed. I got about 4 phone calls while trying to write it.

Talk to you soon. Maybe I'll see you in line at Kroger's!

Bill
